The Purchaser undertakes, at his own costs and expenses, to obtain the relevant party's execution (including Developer and/or Proprietor) on the Direct Transfer of the Property to the Purchaser whereby the Purchaser also undertakes to commit all acts and deeds related to the Memorandum of Transfer to enable the effective transfer of the Property to the Purchaser (including the full settlement of all legal fees, stamp duty, registration fees, taxes, duties and levies connected therewith). In the event the Developer and/or the Proprietor refused to transfer the Property to the Purchaser, the Purchaser shall at his own costs and expenses commence the appropriate legal action (including specific reliefs) to compel the performance of such transfer or procure a 'Double Transfer' from the respective parties. The refusal of the Developer and/or the Proprietor is not a ground for termination of this auction sale.

15. The Assignee/Bank has no notice or knowledge of any encroachment or that the Government or other authority has any immediate intention of acquiring the whole or any part of the Property for roads or any improvement schemes and if such encroachment shall be found to exist or if the Government or any local authority has any such intention, the same shall not annul any sale or shall any abatement or compensation be allowed in respect thereof.

A certificate by an officer of the Assignee/Bank verifying such expenses and/or fees shall be final and conclusive and shall be binding on the Purchaser. Upon refund by the Assignee/Bank under this clause, the Purchaser shall have no other or further claims, demands whatsoever in nature and howsoever caused against the Assignee/Bank, its Solicitors and the Auctioneer or their respective servants or agents.
